

Explanation of Transfer of Funds Greater Than 5%

Johnston County Schools transferred 2.5 million dollars from Teacher Assistant funds to other areas. Two million dollars was transferred to Children with Special Needs to assist with the cost of teachers, teacher assistants and other necessary expenditures for these students. The transfer was necessary because the state only covers the cost for EC children up to 12.5% of the total student population and Johnston County Schools has over 12.5% of its students identified as Children with Special Needs. Again, no state funding was provided for any costs associated with students over the 12.5% threshold.

Five hundred thousand was transferred to transportation. The additional funds were needed to pay for the cost of transporting children designated as homeless, to accommodate student growth, as well as the rising cost in fuel, tires, parts, etc.
